Following is a series of statements about personal preferences and behaviors. Please indicate how frequently you engage in each behavior/endorse each statement.

Response Options:

(1)Never (2)Rarely (3)Sometimes (4)Often (5)Always

1. _____ Joining together different elements can lead to good ideas.
2. _____ Combining multiple ideas can lead to effective solutions.
3. _____ Looking at a problem from a different angle can lead to a solution.
4. _____ Thinking about more than one idea at the same time can lead to a new understanding.
5. _____ If I get stuck on a problem, I look for details that I normally would not notice.
6. _____ I try to act out potential solutions to explore their effectiveness.
7. _____ Becoming physically involved in my work leads me to good solutions.
8. _____ If I get stuck on a problem, I visualize what the solution might look like.
9. _____ While working on something, I often pay attention to my senses.
10. _____ Imagining potential solutions to a problem leads to new insights.
11. _____ While working on something, I try to fully immerse myself in the experience.
12. _____ When I am intensely working, I don't like to stop.
13. _____ I can completely lose track of time if I am intensely working.
14. _____ While working on something I enjoy, the work feels automatic and effortless.
15. _____ If am intensely working, I am fully aware of "the big picture."
16. _____ If I get stuck on a problem, I try to apply previous solutions to the new situation.
17. _____ Incorporating previous solutions in new ways leads to good ideas.

18. _____ If I get stuck on a problem, I make connections between my current problem and a related situation.

19. _____ If I get stuck on a problem, I look for clues in my surroundings.

20. _____ While working on a problem, I try to imagine all aspects of the solution.

21. _____While working on something, I try to generate as many ideas as possible.

22. _____ If I get stuck on a problem, I try to take a different perspective of the situation.

23. _____ I get good ideas while doing something routine, like driving or taking a shower.

24. _____ If I get stuck on a problem, I ask others to help generate potential solutions.

25. _____ In the initial stages of solving a problem, I try to hold off on evaluating my ideas.

26. _____ When I get stuck on a problem, a solution just comes to me when I set it aside.

27. _____ I get solutions to problems through my dreams.

28. _____ I get solutions to problems when my mind is relaxed.

Cognitive Processes Associated with Creativity Scale: Scoring Instructions

Idea Manipulation: Add 1-5. 25 points possible

Imagery / Sensory: Add 6-11. 30 points possible

Flow: Add 12-15. 20 points possible.

Metaphorical/Analogical thinking: Add 16-19. 20 points possible

Idea Generation: Add 20-25. 30 points possible

Incubation: Add 26-28. 15 points possible

To cite the use of this scale:
Miller, A. L. (2014). A self-report measure of cognitive processes associated with creativity. Creativity Research Journal, 26(2), 203-218. https://doi.org/10.1080/10400419.2014.901088